Welcome - to this first edition of "Play Base News"

I would like to thank current members for their continued support and also share some new developments with you.

Membership Renewal :

Please can I ask all existing members to visit the web site to renew their membership. This information will come directly to me. I will issue you with a password which will allow you access to order online.

New members log on to www.midlothianplaybase.org.

Open days :

The play base will be holding open days on Wednesday 12th (11am - 3pm) and Thursday 13th March (4pm - 7pm).

Invitations will be posted or emailed. The open days will give you all an opportunity to pay a visit to the Play Base and view the resources available.

If you would like to be added to the mailing list please email me at playbase@btconnect.com.

Don't have access to a computer?

Don't worry, The Play Base is open on Thursday 10.00am - 3.00pm or alternatively by arrangement. Just give me a call (07740 679027) to arrange your visit.

Just Arrived:

Portable Table Multi purpose light box - can be used on table surface or on the floor. It provides a wide range of experiences and activities that children can respond to by using their senses.

The 'Little book of Light and Shadow' also available.

Valiant Roamer Floor Robot (see opposite) - easy to use with full instructions and rechargeable batteries.

Web Site :

The most exciting development is the creation of a web site for the Play Base.

If you log on to: www.midlothianplaybase.org you will be able to access online all the resources. You can also sign up for membership, book resources and make enquires all from your desk top!

Some members have fed back to me already and your comments have been noted and changes made. Please keep feeding back any issues you may have as it is you who uses the site.

I appreciate your time constraints. Therefore, I want to ensure the site is user friendly.

Posters

The Play Base stocks a variety of educational posters for loan on most topics. These can be ordered from the website or by email.
